Dear Parents and Carers,

Remembrance Day – 100th Anniversary of Armistice Day:

How we remember...

Remembrance is part of modern British life, culture and heritage. It becomes a particular feature of the calendar each year when public, private, formal and informal Remembrance events take place throughout the UK. Remembrance Sunday, which falls on the 11th November 2018, is a day for the nation to remember and honour those who have sacrificed themselves to secure and protect our freedom. Poppies and other items have been on sale in school, raising money for the Royal British Legion to distribute to those service/ex-service men and women, and families in need.

Here are a few of the events taking place this Sunday for the 100th anniversary of Armistice Day.

Sunday 11th November – Remembrance Sunday

- 10.45am Sibsey - Remembrance Service
- 10.45am Brothertoft - Remembrance Service

Football Tournament:

We took two teams last Friday to the football tournament at the Peter Payne Astro turf. Considering we were by far the smallest schools, together with the fact that we were the only school to enter a mixed team, and although we didn't win we did extremely well and I was very proud! Well done all of you!

Children in Need Day:

Friday 16th November 2018

We will be having a non-uniform day, so for a donation we can wear something different. (I'll have to dig out that Hawaiian shirt hiding in the wardrobe!) We'll also be creating a penny trail in the playground...

Christmas Jumper Day:

Parents, grandparents, governors (trustees and members – academy leadership) are invited to stay after assembly to create Christmas tree decorations in each class. Lots of paint, glue, glitter and giggles!
